Then our first card is...

Oh gosh, this is much more difficult than I had imagined
Oh my! How on Earth are we to know what to play?!
6...
Oh dear, a 6...

We have each put a card down and shall turn them together
One, and a two...
I suppose I shall play thus?

Which leads me to believe...
Oh my, the highest numeral is a 12...
I... won?

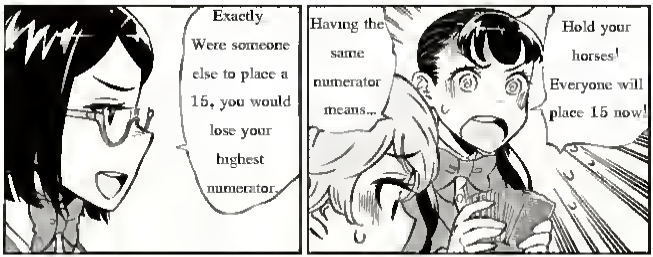
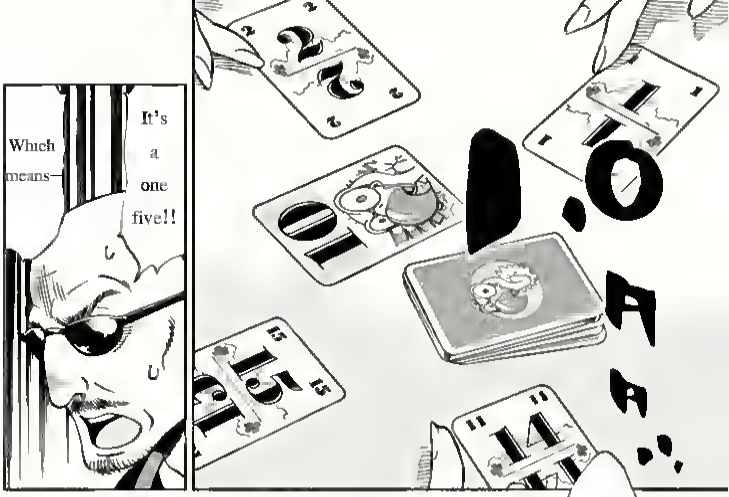
My precious!
I must have it!
Oh crumbs! It's the 10!!



Exactly Were someone else to place a 15, you would lose your highest numerator.
Having the same numerator means...
Hold your horses! Everyone will place 15 now!

Very well
Has everyone prepared themselves?
Oh fiddle sticks! What ever should I do?!
Perhaps you might risk it for a biscuit,
And place another card instead?
Then I activate my trap card!!



Which means—
It's a one five!!
